

Licence Agreement – Original Images – Non-Exclusive

Note: this is a licence. Should you require clarification of any proposed use or require a fully executed licence agreement please contact us before using the Images, via the details below or as updated from time to time on our website.

The files included in the zip file, [Image] and any supplied variations, are copyright Harrison Paul Ltd t/as DonkeyWorx [DWX]. You have purchased a licence to reproduce and reuse these images under the terms detailed below.

DWX hereby grants you a worldwide, non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use, modify and reproduce the Image, in perpetuity, as expressly permitted by the applicable license and subject to the limitations set forth herein:

You may make such copies of the Images as you require for the effective use of the licences provided here, for backup purposes or for convenient use within your organization, so long as any individual using the Image is also bound by this agreement and the rights of the copyright holder are recognised.

You MAY NOT distribute, sell, rent, lease or sublicense the Image in a stand-alone form (except as provided in the Merchandise licence below) or as a resource for others to use in their projects, or in any way which permits or allows the reuse of this image.

You MAY distribute, sell, rent or sublicense material containing the image under the licence terms below so long as the Image (or collections of similar images) is not the primary content of the material.

Individual Licence Terms

You have purchased one of the following licences – please see your invoice for the licence you have paid for.

Website, Blog or Social Media Licence

Use in up to 10 positions in a single social media post or blog/vlog or website. A social media post reposted to different social media services counts as a single instance so long as the content in which it is used remains primarily the same.

Use in up to 10 positions in a single presentation, report or in conference materials for public or internal use.

Book, eBook or Print

Use in up to 10 positions in a single printed or electronic publication. Where an eBook is published in different e-reader formats this constitutes the same publication so long as the content is not changed beyond the coding required for the additional format.

Merchandise, Software and Broadcast

Unlimited use on merchandise including but not limited to mugs, bags, t-shirts or posters whether for commercial or promotional purposes.

Unlimited use in software apps, games and broadcast material

The Image may be used in the materials so licenced and redistributed in those materials for personal, educational and commercial use, whether for profit or not, without further royalties, licence or recognition of DWX.

Variations

Where the zip provided includes variations of the Image – for example, providing different colourways or backgrounds, variations of gender, or different sizes and orientations – this licence applies to the collection of Images as though it were a single Image and not to each variation individually.

All references herein to the singular shall include the plural.

Derivative Work

This licence does not permit creation of modified or derivative works based on the Image.
